	19-12-2005 Shri Ajay Shrivastava, counsel for the petitioner. Shri Ramakant Mishra, Govt. Advocate for the State. Heard. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner was appointed as Shiksha Karmi in Panchayat Department on compassionate ground after the death of her husband. He further submits that the petitioner was not given proper employment, which she deserves. Upon perusal of the record, it appears that the petitioner has not filed any documents relating to her educational qualifications etc. At this stage, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that for the present the petitioner may be given an opportunity of filing the detailed representation alongwith necessary documents before the competent authority of the respondents, which shall be considered on its own merits in accordance with law. Having considered and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, in the opinion of this Court, ends of justice will be served if a direction is given to the petitioner to make a detailed representation raising her grievances before the competent authority of the respondents along with documents relating to her educational qualification etc., a copy of the petition and this order, within a period of one month, and on such representation being filed, the competent authority of the respondents shall decide the same on its own merits in accordance with law as early as possible preferably within a period of four months from the date of receipt of the representation. It is made clear that if any grievance still remains, the petitioner may avail the remedy available under the law. With the aforesaid observations, this petition stands disposed of.
